

Naples Coalition

BPA assisted the Naples Coalition, a group of eight conservation and community groups, to preserve the gateway to the Gaviota coast, the last undeveloped coastal stretch of Santa Barbara, California. BPA worked with the coalition by providing technical and scientific support, develop public outreach and education materials, including the production of multimedia presentations and short Public Service Announcements, and fundraising.

